SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong Atlantic State University senior outfielder Shelby Duff has been named to the Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-America Division II Softball second team for a second consecutive season, released by CoSIDA today.

The Springfield, Ga., native is the first Armstrong softball player to earn multiple Academic All-America honors from Capital One and CoSIDA after earning second-team honors as a junior last season. The radiologic sciences major carries a 3.63 GPA for the No. 4-ranked Pirates, who are currently in Salem, Va., for the NCAA DII Softball Championships.

Duff is hitting .359 this season with a team-leading 16 doubles, eight home runs and 28 RBIs for Armstrong in her senior season. She is the all-time leader in Pirate softball history in doubles (56) and ranks second all-time in at-bats, hits, runs scored and career batting average.

She joins Jessica Strong (2009) as the only Armstrong softball players to earn Academic All-America softball honors as awarded by Capital One and CoSIDA.
